Washington, April 9.—Arrangements for full war co-operation between United States and allies may be completed this week.

Conferences will be held at state, war and navy building between representatives of allied powers, particularly naval agents and heads of American navy and diplomatic services.

The co-operation is to be hearty and thorough. Preliminary discussion started Saturday, continued yesterday and doubtless other meetings will be held today.

For present it is likely that American navy will direct its efforts at clearing a part of the Atlantic of submarines and raiders, giving allies a greater freedom of action than has been possible without American aid.

Incidentally reports of one or more raiders in Atlantic persisted again today, though navy idea generally was that Nantucket Shoals "raider" was only a drifting derelict.

Aside from co-operation with the allies the sincere co-operation of labor—a gigantic factor—has been pledged to the government. Pres. Gompers of American Federation of Labor has given assurance that there will be none of the labor disputes
